

Princeton Farewell

Who'll bite your neck when I'm gone - don't tell me.
Who'll make an amorous pass -whah-room?
Who'll put their monogram on your lily white diaphragm? -
No tellin' how long I'll last. Do do do do.
Oooooo (Oh I've taken my love where I've found it)
Oh I've found it.
Oooooo (Mornin', evenin', and noon.)
Yes every noon.
But who'll keep you warm when I lose my boyish form. Oh.
Who'll bite your neck baby when the last white tooth is gone.
